

Can't find it elsewhere store

Believe it or not, Little Hardware in Mountain Brook sells all sorts of things you can't get your hands on anywhere else. For example, they stock various ironing board covers, in different patterns, arranged by varying degrees of durability. And up front by the windows, they keep all sorts of acrylic entertainment items and serving ware.

well. And at Mia Moda in Vestavia Hills, you'll find a range of jewelry crafted both here in Birmingham and in the surrounding region.

Hair care solution

New to town or just looking for a new stylist? Salonfly.com will guide you through that stressful process. The local website, run by Amy and Jason Olivieri, includes salon reviews, money-saving promotions, monthly giveaways, a style gallery and more. It's a user-friendly way to peek into numerous salons!

Surprising home and gift items

For gifts or home décor, find chic, rustic and trendy items from lamps to vases and even great holiday decorations at Leaf & Petal in Mountain Brook. The oh-so-helpful staff can also steer you in the direction of fool proof house plants and guide you in your gardening.

Chef's supplies

For the professional chef, or the home chef, Bresco is the place to go for every cooking or kitchen prep need. The foodservice supply company carries every size spatula, whisk, bowl, pot, etc. you'll ever need as well as dining chairs, barstools and stainless steel tables. 📍

Store slogan

Yucatan Trading Company in Cahaba Heights has an array of home furnishings and décor from Mexico, including iron and wood furniture as well as pottery in all shapes and sizes. While their selection is great, the best of Yucatan might just be their slogan, "We go so far, you peso little."

